

Data Protection and Confidentiality Policy

Habitat for Humanity Great Britain is bound by the provisions of the Data Protection Act. HFHGB receives personal data and sensitive personal data and processes this data for the purposes of:

- Accepting a person onto a team
- Managing the team logistics
- Providing work and activities that are appropriate
- Managing an emergency situation

HFHGB will not pass on personal information to any third parties unless that party has a direct interest in the individual, e.g. next of kin, Team Leader or other organisations who may be taking responsibility for an aspect of the Global Village programme.
